

Feshiebridge

Inshriach Forest, Cairngorms National Park

Facilities

Parking

Accessible facilities

Picnic area

Location

Nearest postcode: PH21 1NG

How to get here

From Aviemore take the B9152 south to Kincaig. Turn left opposite the war memorial, signposted Feshiebridge, and follow the road through the village and across the river to a T-junction. Turn left and the car park is about ½ mile (800 m) further on.

Trail Information

River Feshie Trail ●●●

A narrow natural path along the river. There are lots of places to stop and watch the water.

A mostly narrow grassy trail with rough and uneven rocky sections. Can be wet and muddy after rain. Contains short fairly steep sections. Narrow bridges.

strenuous

1¼ miles /
2 kms
Allow
1 hour

Feshie Woodland Trail ●●●

A peaceful trail into a classic Cairngorm landscape of tumbling burns, heather and Scots pines.

A moderately steep route, with short steeper sections. Earthy paths with some narrow, including stone steps and roots. Can be wet after rain. Includes two public road crossings.

strenuous

1¼ miles /
3 kms
Allow 1¼ hours

Frank Bruce Sculpture Trail

Frank Bruce was a self-taught sculptor whose remarkable works have been installed in a small area near the Feshie river trail. The carvings fill the woodland with spirits, stories, and Frank's thought-provoking responses to what it means to be human.

You can follow the informal but easy winding path through tall trees and a tranquil walled garden to visit the remarkable sculptures of Frank Bruce.

The path is firm, smooth and generally flat with some short gentle gradients. 1 mile / 1.6 kms / Allow ¾ hour. This path is not waymarked.